Becoming a member

Become a member and support TDRF's vision of being a centre of excellence & leader of decorative arts in Australia.

Being a TDRF Member will enrich your visitor experience by bringing you closer to David Roche's exceptional collection of antiques, fine art and objects d'art.

You will also be supporting the Foundation to put on world class exhibitions, program lectures with expert guest speakers and acquire major pieces to add to the already established collection.

Through the membership, you will meet like-minded enthusiasts who share your passion for art and history.

You will also have access to exclusive tours and special events, and will be the first to hear about TDRF programs and events.

You will enjoy benefits such as discounts on house tour tickets, exhibition entry fees, lecture series tickets and shop merchandise.

Join today and be part of one of Australia's finest private art institutions.
