Club Fermoy #25

Dear friends and supporters,

Welcome to our 'short and sweet' summer edition of Club Fermoy. Throughout January enjoy access to David Roche's extraordinary collection displayed in Fermoy House for just $12 General or $10 Concession. Book a tour today and reacquaint yourself with his mesmerizing interiors which are kept at an optimal 21 degrees throughout summer!

Then, starting 29 January, we launch our first exhibition for 2022 - Silhouettes: Fashion in the shadow of HIV/AIDS, an inspiring, beautiful, and powerful show that takes us on a journey through some of the fashion 'greats' we lost in the late twentieth century. Curated exclusively for TDRF!

Best wishes,

Robert Reason
Museum Director

UPCOMING EXHIBITION

SILHOUETTES
Fashion in the Shadow of HIV/AIDS

OPENS 29 JANUARY

Silhouettes: Fashion in the Shadow of HIV/AIDS explores the lives and works of some of fashion's brightest stars from the late 20th century. Featured in this ground-breaking exhibition are works by designers, artist and activists who have passed of AIDS related illness to raise awareness of their contribution to fashion during a pivotal moment in history.

Over 100 pieces of fashion, art and ephemera - sourced from esteemed private and public collections from the UK, Europe, USA and Australia - tell a story of changing hemlines, changing worlds and changing attitudes. Showcasing household names like Halston and Moschino, Silhouettes also features work from revolutionary black designers Patrick Kelly, Fabrice Simon and Willi Smith, and forgotten talents like Clovis Ruffin and Chester Weinberg.

HIV/AIDS in fashion became an important activism tool to force social and political advancement, and in many cases intersected couture designers and activist artists as they collaborated to affect change through fashion, design, and art. Australians Peter Tully, David McDiarmid and Brenton Heath-Kerr brought this struggle to our streets with passion and panache.

The fashion designers, artists, and activists selected for Silhouettes exercised an outsized influence on fashion and almost all are unduly overlooked in recent years. Silhouettes: Fashion in the Shadow of HIV/AIDS is a powerful reminder of an entire generation of international designers lost to the virus but deserving of contemporary recognition.

EVENTS

The David Roche Foundation has a full schedule of events planned for the season of Silhouettes, including a variety of guest speakers, musical performances and special guided tours of the exhibition.

After Silhouettes opens on 29 January, we're kicking off our events season with a Members only tour of Silhouettes with fashion historian, collector and the exhibition's guest curator, Skye Bartlett, on Thursday 10 February; followed a couple of weeks later on Thursday 24 February by our first Twilight evening of 2022, in what is sure to be an enjoyable evening at TDRF.

The start of March sees Fringe Festival returning to TDRF with two performances by renowned violinist, Jonathon Glonek, on Thursday 2 and 9 March, the former consisting of Grand duos with violist Heidi Von Bernewitz, the latter delving into the incredible works for the violin by Italian violinist and composer, Niccolò Paganini (1782-1840). March will conclude with a visit from Rebecca Evans, the Art Gallery of South Australia's Curator of Decorative Arts and Design, who will be talking about the work of Peter Tully, one of the Australian designers in Silhouettes.

In April, we have the pleasure of welcoming art historian, Timothy Roberts, to TDRF to talk about fashion as a form of activism, on Thursday 21 April, in his lecture, Wear your heart on your sleeve.

Then in, May we'll see Skye Bartlett return to TDRF, this time accompanied by Nikki Sullivan (SAMESH), when they will present a special guided tour of the Silhouettes exhibition on Thursday 12 May as part of the History Festival.

Make sure to keep an eye on our events page (click below!) as we'll be adding more events over the coming days and weeks, and that's where you'll find out about these first!
